

Alexandra Samios Nelson is a Chicago-based nonprofit consultant. Their firm Juno Consulting does "common sense consulting" specializing in grants writing and management, development planning, and start up support for small and mid-sized non-profits. The firm is currently working with Chicago Metamorphosis Orchestra Project, The WasteShed, Black Girls Dance, and Music Theater Works; over a 40 year career they have worked with several dozen clients, including numerous small orchestras. Alexandra is also a poet and a visual artist. Read about all their hats at JunoConsulting.net.