

Peter Gillette is an arts administrator and musician in Chicago, and he grew up in Lake County, IL. He has served as Director of Institutional Giving at Chicago Sinfonietta since 2022 during a period of programmatic expansion and a move to Auditorium Theatre. For 8 years, he was music administrator at University of Chicago during a period of investment in contemporary music, primarily in an HR and finance role. Trained as a writer, trumpeter, and musicologist, Peter holds degrees from University of Iowa (MA Trumpet Performance, ABD Historical Musicology) and Lawrence University (BA English/BMus Trumpet). As a performer, he has been a member of Chicago theatrical marching band Mucca Pazza since 2019 and currently serves on its executive board. An advocate for Chicago's cooperative contemporary music scene, Peter has served on the board of the ~Nois Saxophone Quartet since 2023.
